THE BOOK-IT LIST

Sloping off

The time is now to book your escape to the mountains. Schwoop, schwoop...

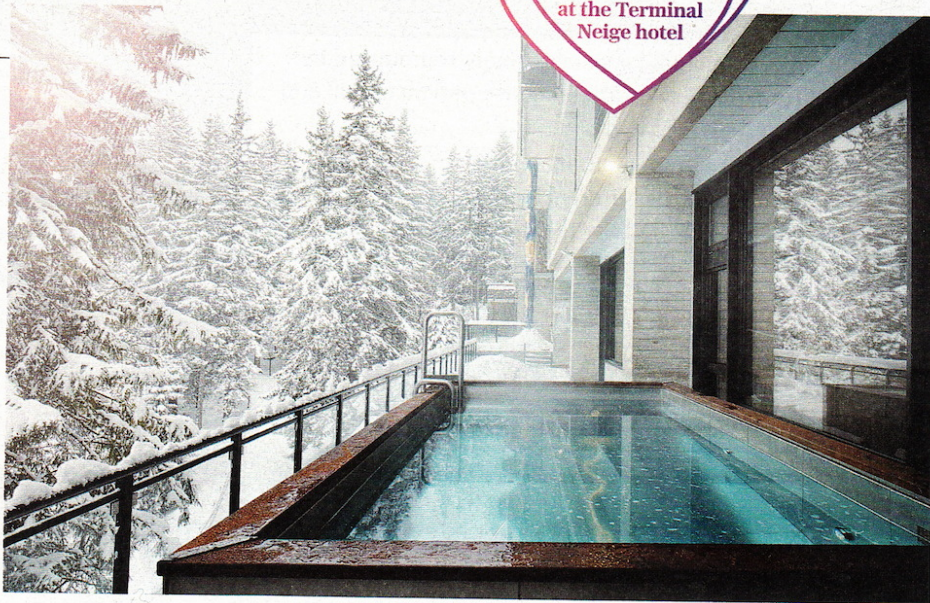

TERMINAL NEIGE

Totem, Flaine, France

Best for... contemporary flair New ski-in, ski-out hotel Terminal Neige Le Totem brings urban style to the mountains. Think mulled apple juice in mason jars and a spa worthy of any chic city hotel. The views over Flaine from the restaurant and cosy fireside bar make it the perfect spot to indulge in a cheese fondue after a day on the slopes.

From £135 per night b&b based on two sharing; terminal-neige.com

Lowe Alpine ski jacket £59.99, TK Maxx (tkmaxx.com)

HOTEL AURELIO

Lech, Austria

Best for... Alpine perfection The ultimate in off-piste indulgence. Relax après ski in the aroma-salt steam rooms or the indoor pool in the spa. One building – the plush eight-bedroom Clubhouse – is regularly rented out to the rich and famous.

From £825 based on two sharing, including breakfast, afternoon tea and dinner; aureliolech.com

Scandi leggings £60, Sweaty Betty (sweatybetty.com)

WHITE 1921

Courchevel, France

Best for... glitz with altitude The ideal spot for understated luxury, and for serious skiers. Get kitted out in the private ski shop (where staff will swap your boots for soft slippers the moment you're off piste). Rooms are compact but come with heavenly beds. Be sure to visit the private hammam post-slopes.

Superior Room from £260 b&b based on two sharing; white1921.com

Panelled stretch-jersey top £60, Falke (net-a-porter.com)

ROSALP 4

Ski Verbier Exclusive, Switzerland

Best for... holidaying with pals In the heart of the town, near the main ski lift, this stylish chalet apartment sleeps eight in four en-suite bedrooms. An open fire and comfy sofas give it a rustic feel and the balcony is perfect for après-ski drinks.

Seven nights from £1,570pp (based on eight sharing) half board, including drinks; skiverbierexclusive.com

Eye-print gloves £290, Fendi (matchesfashion.com)
