Tucked away in the secluded Plan-Praz area of Verbier, 375m² Chalet Pierre Avoi is a stunning mountain retreat. The interior has been beautifully designed, with modern art works adorning the natural mineral walls and elegant furniture throughout.

“I just wanted to say what an exceptional holiday we had at Pierre Avoi. It was amazing! From start to finish our experience was brilliant. Alan’s cooking was truly unbelievable. The preparation that went into every meal was remarkable; not to mention the nine children that were fed every night before us. Alan knows a sure-fire way to knock out an impressive dish – we were thoroughly spoilt!! Pierre Avoi was a brilliant chalet to stay at and I would highly recommend it.

”Mrs S.C., Chalet Pierre Avoi

At the chalet's heart is the double height living area, complete with stone fireplace and floor to ceiling windows, which open up to a huge south and south-west facing decked terrace. The sanctuary of the outdoor hot tub is the perfect place to relax after a long day on the slopes, taking in the jaw-dropping views of Combins and the Mont Blanc Massif, or maybe opt for a sauna or massage in the chalet's treatment room.
